

Get Credit for Your Merit

Funding your education on your own merit is within your reach.

With a Meritize loan, you can improve your loan terms by sharing your academic profile. Providing your official or unofficial transcript from high school, college or other skills-based school lets Meritize use your learning history to improve your credit evaluation and loan options.

You don't have to have great credit.

You don't have to have a co-borrower, (but if you do, even better).

You don't have to be an A student to get financial credit for your academic merit.
